Georgia Studies for Georgia Students Chapter 22: The Great Depression and the New Deal in Georgia

Internet Activity

The Great Depression brought many economic problems to Georgia in the 1930s. Farm prices were low and many factories and businesses closed.

Instructions: Use the information in the links below to complete the activities.

If you cannot find interesting photos from your county, look for one nearby.

To enlarge the pictures, click the small version of the picture, and click it again.

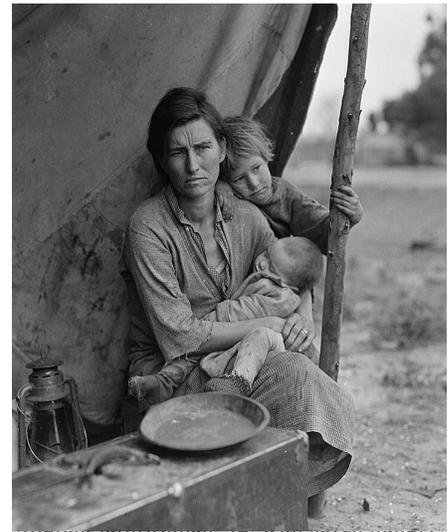

Your task: Imagine that you are working for a book publisher. You must choose one or two pictures from this website that you feel would be best to include in a chapter about New Deal projects in Georgia during the Great Depression.

Below the printed picture, write a short paragraph to explain why you chose the photo instead of another.
