

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Ch 1 American Government and Citizenship

Ch 1 Puzzle 2 American Government-Citizenship

Instructions: Complete the crossword puzzle. Use the clues to help identify the words.

Across

- _____ review - the ability to set aside the actions of the legislative or executive branches of any government agency
- _____ action committee - PAC; a private organization whose members share similar views and who try to influence legislators to favor the group's position
- to refuse to sign a bill
- _____ powers - those powers specifically given to Congress in the United States Constitution
- one who presents to legislators the views of the organization that he or she represents
- a small group of delegates or senators who studies bills on a particular subject and makes recommendations on those bills to the full membership of each house
- describes a one-house legislature
- to redraw voting districts

Down

- to bring charges against an elected official while that official is still in office
- the organization that has the authority to make and enforce laws
- _____ representation - representation based on population
- roads, bridges, ports

6. _____ powers - powers that are not specifically stated in the Constitution but come from Congress's right to make all laws "necessary" to carry out its expressed powers
7. to change or add to an official document
10. to approve officially